Library Guide
Reflecting Class in the Age of Rembrandt and Vermeer

The seventeenth century in the Netherlands is known as the Golden Age of Dutch art. In the exhibition, Reflecting Class in the Age of Rembrandt and Vermeer, differences between the social classes are examined through their depiction in Dutch art. In this bibliography, created in conjunction with the exhibition, we have included books on Dutch art and society, general titles on Dutch seventeenth century painting, titles exploring individual artists’ contributions, as well as works about Dutch decorative arts. All of the items on the bibliography are in the collection of the Spencer Art Reference Library, unless otherwise noted.

If you have questions, please contact the reference staff at the Spencer Art Reference Library (telephone: 816.751.1216). Library hours and services are listed on the Museum’s website at nelson-atkins.org/library.
